

THE VESSEL

Taddle Creek Park
40 Bedford Rd., Toronto, ON Canada
Installation: July 31, 2011

Commissioned by The City of Toronto
5.7m high Stainless Steel Sculpture
with a Water Feature.

This sculpture of a water-carrying vessel is made from 4 kilometers of stainless steel rod. The rod measures the approximate length of Taddle Creek, which ran from Taddle Creek Park through downtown Toronto to Lake Ontario. Water flows from the top of the rim of the vessel over its surface and then cascades onto the ground. Water from The Vessel is stored in an underground cistern and used to irrigate the park.

URSA MAJOR'S VISIT

The Halifax Citadel
Nocturne Art at Night:
October 15, 2011

Commissioned by Parks Canada and the Halifax Regional Municipality.
10m x 6m Acrylic and LED Sculpture.

On October 15th, 2011 viewers entering the Halifax Citadel's Parade Square saw the glowing outline of a large bear suspended in the east corner of the courtyard. The sculptural form is made from a combination of LEDs marking the star points of the constellation Ursa Major and light-weight polycarbonate and acrylic components. Both western and some First Nations cultures identify this constellation as a bear.

THE BEACH CHAIR

Sculpture by the Sea
Arhus, Denmark
June 2 – July 3, 2011

6m x 4m x 4.2m Transparent
Polycarbonate and Steel Sculpture.

The sculpture is designed with an outer shell of transparent polycarbonate filled with sand through which insects can burrow. The various mounds of sand appear to have been moved by small creatures entering the sculpture and traveling through the tubing.

WHAT'S YOUR NAME?

The Republic at Yonge and Eglinton,
North Toronto Collegiate Institute
70 Roehampton Ave, Toronto, ON Canada
Installation: November 1, 2011.

Commissioned by Tridel
and the Toronto District School Board.
4.2m high Stainless Steel Sculpture.

What's Your Name? identifies NTCI students past and present by reproducing their proper names and handwritten signatures on the sculpture's stainless steel surfaces. One sheaf shows all the first names of students who have attended the school since 1912 and the other is composed of signatures of current students and alumni.
